

Fracking is coming- get informed

The Crawberry Hill 3km deep well, near Walkington, is less than 5 miles from Woodmansey, and goes right through the underground reservoir that supplies our drinking water.

It is about to be mini-fracked.

Could we see 3,000 more?

Fracking Information Evening

If Rathlin Energy insist they aren't fracking, should we be concerned?

Why would a group of individuals, including many educated to degree level, take the extraordinary step of giving up jobs, family and a comfortable lifestyle to camp at the side of the road in East Yorks?
